*The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers,
because the shining splendour of that name
causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.*

Gospel Luke 4:1-13

In this Sunday's Gospel, we learn that early in his public life, Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert.

The desert seems to be an empty, inhospitable place but it can also be a place for spiritual growth. In the stillness and quiet of the desert, it is easier to become aware of the presence of God, as God's words in Psalm 42 suggest, 'Be still and know that I am God'.

When we take time out - away from the distraction of phones and TV - we can experience something of 'desert' stillness. Lifted out of our daily preoccupations, we look out on the world around us with fresh eyes. When we start to listen, we come to know the heart of Jesus and his longing to bring every person to the fullness of life. In this Year of Grace in Australia, we claim the grace to be taken out of our selfish focus and into an authentic life as followers of Jesus.

PROJECT COMPASSION

Your support for Project Compassion gives expression to the Gospel imperative to help those suffering from poverty and disadvantage.

This week we meet 12-year old Ditosa, an orphan who lost her parents to HIV/AIDS. The Matuba Children's Centre in Mozambique, run by Caritas Chokwe, offers orphaned and vulnerable children food, clean water, educational support, livelihood training and a place where children can be safe, happy and healthy. Your solidarity means children like Ditosa have a brighter future.

Prayer to Mary, Mother of the Church, Mother of Mercy.

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy,
 hail our life, our sweetness and our hope!
 To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve,
 To you do we send up our sighs,
 mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
 Turn then, most gracious Advocate,
 your eyes of mercy towards us,
 and after this our exile show unto us
 the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus.
 O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.
 Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,
 that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Prayer to St Mary of the Cross

To you we turn, St Mary of the Cross, at this troubled time in the Church,
 for you are our advocate, patron of the Archdiocese and of this land.
 To you we bring the pain of those abused by people whom they trusted.
 We bring our own sorrow and shame,
 our anger and our fear,
 our desire for a Church made whole.
 All this we place in your hands,
 the hands of a loving mother who knows the Australian heart.
 Plead to God for those abused and intercede for us,
 that wounds may be healed, that new hope may come,
 and that, through suffering,
 the Church that we love may be purified by Jesus Christ
 the living truth, the sun of justice
 "risen with healing in his wings" (Malachi 4:2).
 Amen.

In the midst of all our trials and sacrifices, may the joy of the Lord be our strength (cf Nehemiah 8:10).
