The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

Reflection

'Do this in memory of me'. Many of the great things of life are kept alive through the 'remembering' of cherished traditions. Moses says to the people, 'Remember ... do not forget, the Lord fed you with manna'. In the words of John's gospel before the passage we read today, Jesus has recalled this story of the Exodus, and likened himself to the manna given to the people in the midst of their complaining. Now he announces the inauguration of a new tradition - and, as John tells us, it too will be met with complaining. To this point, Jesus has been telling the people that he was foreshadowed in the manna. He came to nourish their old faith. Now, however, he makes a dramatic announcement. In all that he does, he is giving expression to the ways of his Father - taking up the initiative himself. He will become the nourishment of God's people in a way that could never have been anticipated: 'The bread that I shall give is my flesh for the life of the world'....

'This is my body, given, broken, for you. This is my blood poured out for the whole world'. All this is clearly, but subtly, implied in the words of John's gospel. 'Sent by the Father', Jesus is still carrying out - in the eucharistic mystery - the great task he had been given. In John's account of the last days of the Saviour, Jesus declares, 'And when I am lifted up from the earth I shall draw all people to myself' (Jn 12:32). In the Mass, we are given to share in the Saviour's return to the Father, making intercession for the whole human family. 'As I draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me' - our sharing in 'this one loaf' is nothing less than a sharing the life of the Father.... The Eucharist is the sacrament of the whole drama of salvation - 'Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day'.....'

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

The Power of Prayer

A little known function of the Archdiocesan Mobile App is that you can access a team of dedicated prayers to intercede on your behalf and not just find out the nearest and next Mass times.

This new facility is accessed via the “Prayer” icon found at the bottom of the free App’s homepage. Individuals can submit a prayer intention there, remaining anonymous if they so choose. Submitters then have the option of having their prayer made public, and conjoined with all the other prayer intentions received (displayed most notably on the App), or else retained as a private intercession to be prayed for amongst a selection of local prayer groups.

The Mobile App is found easily in either the Android or iOS App stores using the search terms “Archdiocese of Brisbane”.
