Gospel Reflection

'There is something for us to reflect [on in today's Gospel]: Jesus is not in the boat; he is in that hostile environment into which we often fear to enter and instead huddle in the security of our church...Too often we Christians spend much, if not all, of our time in the shelter of the boat, taking care of ourselves and neglecting those in the stormy sea who need to hear the words of life. "Man of little trust, why did you doubt?" How often has Jesus had to say those words to each one of us?

Jesus and Peter now step into the boat and the wind drops. There is peace and calm. In Mark's version of this story, the disciples are simply amazed at the sudden change but do not draw the obvious conclusion. In Matthew's version, however, they understand and believe. They even anticipate Peter's later confession (in chap. 16), "Truly, you are the Son of God". The conclusion, then, is that Jesus can also be found in the boat but only when we also are ready to leave the shelter of the boat to find him in the 'world', that place which is at least indifferent and at its worst very hostile to the Christian vision...One important lesson of today's readings is that, in our turbulent world (and much of the turbulence is in our own hearts), Jesus is the source of peace.'

From reflection on the Gospel by the Irish Jesuits, at Living Space (a part of A Sacred Space (www.sacredspace.ie))

The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

Catholic Mission Appeal August 16/17

The account of Jesus walking on the water is often used as a tale to highlight the importance of not doubting. Sometimes, however, our circumstances do threaten to engulf our faith. Like the people of Rwanda, when faced with horrific bloodshed and violence in their own nation, we can question God's love, His protection and His grace. We start to sink beneath the waves of temptation, bitterness, resentment and scepticism. The recurring message throughout the readings for this weekend is not dissimilar from the thrust of our appeal: God is in all situations, good and bad. He provides consolation in the midst of overwhelming crisis and 'He heals the broken hearted'. With your help, we can be the hand of Jesus, reaching out to Peter, and urging the people of Rwanda, and all those where the Church works and operates, to take 'courage'. On their behalf, thank you for your generosity. David McGovern, Director

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever.
Arise, O God, and defend your cause,
and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

Save us, Saviour of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and
glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
