*The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers,
 because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.*

GOSPEL REFLECTION

'Love your enemies', these words were addressed to a people whose traditions urged them to care for their own; but saw no place for good will and generosity to foreigners in general - whom they looked upon as rivals and enemies. Old Israel had been taken into covenant with the living God, shown in the Exodus to be the champion of the poor and oppressed.

Through the covenant they were called to identify with the ways of God. In fact, their traditions – as today's reading from the book of Exodus makes clear – were remarkable compared with the outlook of other peoples of their time. As they began to learn what identification with God's ways involved; they recognised that they must care for the powerless - the poor, widows and orphans, the strangers who had settled among them. But they still had much to learn - their good will was not extended to all of God's children without exception. In advocating this as the ideal as his New Law of love, Jesus was not abolishing the old Law, but bringing it to 'fulfilment'. The ideal held up by Jesus as the fulfilment of the Law was clear: 'I say this to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you; so that you will be children of your Father in heaven' (Mt 5:44).

Love of God Love of Neighbour

“Love God with all the feeling in your heart, with all the energy within you, and with every thought in your mind. This is the most important command. The next in importance is just like it. ‘Love everyone like you love yourself.’ The entire Bible depends on these two commands.”

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

November Mass Offering Envelopes

Every year we remember to pray and offer masses especially for our departed relatives and friends on the 1st November - the commemoration of all the faithful departed. But as Catholics we don't just remember and pray for them on the 1st November, in fact, we remember our departed loved ones throughout the month of November.

As a reminder to us to effectively remember them practically and prayerfully, November Mass Offering envelopes are available at each church entrance from this weekend.

Please take one if you need to offer a mass intention for your friends or loved ones, and leave the completed envelope on any collection plate.

Fifties Plus Group will meet for morning tea at 10am on Wednesday 5th November at the home of Angela MacLeod, 33-37 Hickey Road Park Ridge South. Please phone Christian for any further information: 0407 576 746.
