GOSPEL REFLECTION

The Gospel reminds us to practice what we preach

Today's gospel reading tells us how the community for whom Matthew wrote recalled the Saviour's teaching concerning leadership of God's people. The leadership Jesus criticised was the outcome of a complex development. There was no single authority that interpreted the faith of old Israel. The Law of Moses, the 'Torah', was handed down in the biblical traditions as the expression of God's authority.

The priests of the temple were the traditional custodians of the rituals that gave expression to the people's covenant obligations. The teaching of the prophets was a spontaneous expression of guidance, like a conscience of the nation. The scribes were students of the Law who interpreted its contents. The Pharisees formed a popular movement, seeking to revive the nation's religious practice. Jesus acknowledged that it is these various groups who 'occupy the chair of Moses' – if the Law is to be interpreted faithfully, it is only these various authorities who can provide this interpretation. He criticised them, however, because they 'do not practice what they preach'.

From a sermon by Fr John Thornhill SM <http://www.theemmauseries.com/a31sunday.html>

The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

Words of Wisdom –St Peter Julian Eymard

“He loves, He hopes, He waits. If He came down on our altars on certain days only, some sinner, on being moved to repentance, might have to look for Him, and not finding Him, might have to wait. Our Lord prefers to wait Himself for the sinner for years rather than keep him waiting one instant.”

November Mass Offering Envelopes

Every year we remember to pray and offer masses especially for our departed relatives and friends on the 1st November - the commemoration of all the faithful departed. But as Catholics we don't just remember and pray for them on the 1st November, in fact, we remember our departed loved ones throughout the month of November.

As a reminder to us to effectively remember them practically and prayerfully, November Mass Offering envelopes are available at each church entrance from this weekend.

Please take one if you need to offer a mass intention for your friends or loved ones, and leave the completed envelope on any collection plate.
