GOSPEL REFLECTION

Jesus demonstrates he is both a man of action and reflection

Jesus is not only someone who does things 'at once' and 'straight-away' but is also someone who takes time out of the busy-ness. He knows the needs of those who are sick and disturbed - but He also knows the absolute necessity of silence and communion with God.

"It is following this time of prayer that Jesus discerns that His mission is not to be confined in one place - but that the Good News is to be proclaimed throughout Galilee. They leave the village - and Jesus spreads the news of the Kingdom - by preaching and by healing - particularly healing those who are held bound by evil.

"This balance in Jesus' life was to be an example to His first disciples - and may be even more important in our day where so much emphasis is placed on what people do - what people achieve. Often, this means that people lose sight of the importance of 'being' - of spending time with the God who created them.

"Jesus offers an example of what it means to be a whole person - who gives His time and energy generously and lovingly to those around Him - but who also gives time and space generously and lovingly to God."

The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.
