The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

"Jesus was not afraid of the market-place - he spent a lot of time there, teaching, preaching and healing. But, when confronted with the same things in the Temple, he became angry. As someone who regularly went off to quiet places to pray, he knew how essential it was - and how disruptive a noisy, bustle place could be.

"The authorities are understandably angry in return - who does Jesus think he is?"

"Jesus understands that the days of the Temple are numbered - and that, in fact, a new Temple is being built - a new Kingdom. He is himself a Temple, a place where God is and all too soon, the sanctuary that was his own body would seem to be destroyed. But, unlike the Temple, so painstakingly built over so many years and so difficult to rebuild when destroyed, his body was charged with the very life of God and death could not hold him. "This gift he passed on to his disciples - making them temples of the Holy Spirit - the presence of God in the world."

A reflection on the Gospel by Catherine McElhinney and Kathryn Turner.

Third Sunday of

Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2015

...the suffering of others is a call to conversion, since their need reminds me of the uncertainty of my own life and my dependence on God and my brothers and sisters. If we humbly implore God's grace and accept our own limitations, we will trust in the infinite possibilities which God's love holds out to us. We will also be able to resist the diabolical temptation of thinking that by our own efforts we can save the world and ourselves.

PROJECT COMPASSION

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

While there is abundant food in Australian cities, the story is starkly different for First Australians living in rural communities, where low incomes and limited access to nutritious, affordable food reduces the health and well-being of families.

Karen a sole mother-of-six living in remote Central NSW had few places to buy food and prices were high due to freighting costs, and lack of local competition. Karen had neither the skills nor the money to provide a nutritious diet for her family – until two years ago when she enrolled in the Centacare program.

Through a series of budgeting and nutrition workshops and monthly budget planning sessions and cooking activities, Karen has gained the tools she needed to take control of her money, and Provider regular, healthy meals for her family, 'food for life'.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2015 and help people in isolated areas of Fiji gain the skills they need to build healthy families and grow food for life.

Steering Committee members wanted for new Catholic primary school

As you may know, Brisbane Catholic Education is working towards opening a new Catholic primary school to serve the growing community of Yarrabilba and surrounding Logan area.

A block of land has been secured and approvals for development, accreditation and funding are progressing. If all goes according to plan, it is hoped to open the new school in 2017 with students in Prep to Year 3. The school would then expand upwards by one year level at a time.

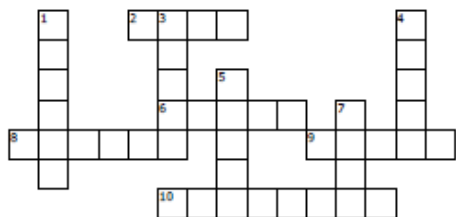

As the new school will be an important part of our Catholic community, it is essential that the community be represented on the Steering Committee that will be established to plan for the new school.

The Steering Committee that will have a wide brief, to make recommendations about school vision, facilities, uniforms- and even the name of the school.

Brisbane Catholic Education is now seeking people to nominate to join the Steering Committee. If you believe you have something to contribute and would like to be part of establishing a new school.

Please contact the Parish Office as soon as possible - Phone : 07 3884 7600 or Email: stbernardines@bne.catholic.net.au
