Gospel Reflection

Mark 4:35-41

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

The whole life of Jesus, we can say, is a parable, leading us into the mystery of God's generous and merciful dealings with us. As we come to appreciate the "Kingdom" Jesus announced, and see him caring for God's people in their needs, we come to know the commitments which shaped his human existence. More than one of the Fathers spoke of Jesus as the "seed". In fact, he himself said he was the seed that must fall into the ground and die to produce God's final harvest.

The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

Our parish will conduct the annual Propagation of the Faith appeal this weekend (June 20/21)

It is tempting to see the Gospel account of Jesus calming the storm as being symbolic, another example of how a faith perspective can offer us access to peace and serenity. What we can miss if we view the Gospel as 'symbolic', however, is the power of Jesus. In this miracle, He showed He was truly the Son of God. It is no wonder the disciples respond with awe and wonder. And what does this have to do with the Catholic Mission appeal, which is taking place this weekend? It shows that God is in control of all circumstances, including the plight of those who are in need and who have access to the sorts of things we take for granted...including water and proper sanitation. It also shows that God can redeem even the most hopeless situations. Whether it is calming the raging seas or allowing the Church to transform communities with the provision of education, irrigation and sanitation, such as in Madagascar, God, through Jesus, can say 'Be still'. But we also have to play a part as well – in this instance, it is contributing to the annual Propagation of the Faith appeal. It too is an act of faith, allowing the Holy Spirit to then work through missionaries like Sr Rose. On her behalf, thank you for your generosity.

David McGovern, Queensland Regional Director
