GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark concludes his account of the ministry of Jesus in Galilee with descriptions of some remarkable miracles worked by Jesus during this ministry. In today's reading Jesus shows himself the Lord of life and death – healing the woman 'who had suffered from a haemorrhage for 12 years', and bringing back to life the young daughter of one of the elders of the local synagogue. Again, the words of Jesus and Mark's telling of the story emphasise the importance of 'faith' in what is to unfold – a trusting openness to the fact that, in the ministry of Jesus, God's great promises to Israel were being fulfilled. This faith, however, finds very different expression in the two cases. The synagogue official, well versed in the traditions of Israel, and with an openness that expresses the true spirit of Israel's faith, makes his request: 'Make my little daughter better and save her life'. His trust in what Jesus can do for him is in stark contrast with the attitude of those who report that the girl is already dead and urge him not to trouble Jesus further, and with the mourners already gathering in his home. The woman's faith is less informed; naïve perhaps, very like the faith of so many simple believers. But what she knows of Jesus inspires her to seek a healing by 'touching his clothes'. The reaction of Jesus is to lead her to the personal meeting with him that should take place in an authentic faith.

- From a homily on the Gospel by Fr John Thornhill sm

The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

CONFERENCE FOR YOUNG ADULTS—JULY 11, 2015

Spirit in the City Conference 2015, to be held on Saturday 11 July 2015 at Gardens Point, Brisbane is being organised by QUT Chaplaincy concerning the challenges of understanding and applying the Catholic and Christian faith in the highly secularized cultural, political and other influential settings of contemporary Australian society. Key Speakers include Archbishop Mark Coleridge, Fr Richard Leonard sj, Stephen Barr from New York via Skype, Scott Stephens from ABC's Radio National, and Matthew Tan from Campion College, Sydney. There will be a panel of speakers to talk about the media which includes well known journalist, Tess Livingstone. The conference will address key areas of faith including scripture, theology, and church teaching and explores how faith and action play out through media, politics, culture and art, science and technology, and other areas of public interest. These have multiple, competing perspectives, and increasingly, a "dictatorship of relativism" as coined by Pope Benedict XVI, confounding the right ways for Catholics to understand, judge and act. The Conference will conclude with sacred music at Stephens Cathedral to be followed by Mass. For more information and bookings go to www.spiritinthecity.net or ring Fr Bavin Clarke 07 3138 2700 or Deacon Russ Nelson 0427 743 534."

When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed." Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering. Mark 5:27-29 (NIV)
