The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

The exchange between Jesus and Pilate also makes it clear that the execution of Jesus is a consequence of his rejection by the Establishment of the Jewish nation. In John's Gospel, this conflict is described in terms of the "truth" that he has brought from his Father: "It is because I speak the truth that you cannot believe me" (8:45). He has urged his people to find again their true calling in the designs of God, to be "a light to the nations," showing the world the life and joy of a people living according to the ways they have learned from his Father.

John's gospel, as we have seen, portrays Jesus as reigning on the Cross. His exchange with Pilate echoes through the continuing narrative, "Here is your king," Pilate declares (18:14); the governor's notice reads "King of the Jews" (18:19); Jesus entrusts the beloved disciple – standing for us all – to his mother (19:26); "the blood and water" from his side are solemnly proclaimed as a blessing upon us all. What Jesus foretold early in his ministry has been realised: "The Son of Man must be lifted up so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life" (Jn 3:14). The symbol of kingship may have become archaic, but what it speaks of in the Scriptures, concerning the role of the Saviour in reign of God, has an everlasting relevance, far removed from the politics of this world.

If you would like to participate, please take a tag from the tree, buy and wrap your gift, re-attach the tag, and place your gift under the tree by 12th-13th December. The parish has been very generous in past years, and we look forward to your generosity again. Cash donations are welcome.
