The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In today's liturgy - as we begin the cycle of the Sundays of the Year - the gospel reading from John tells the story of the 'first sign' worked by Jesus, in the presence of his disciples, in Cana in Galilee. With it we round off the celebration of the Lord's Epiphany, or 'manifestation'. The meditative tradition of the community that gave us this gospel has gathered together several 'signs' - miracles or works of Jesus - in which they have found a rich symbolism that nourishes their faith in the Eternal Son who came forth from the Father. As it concludes, this gospel is called a 'book of signs', put together so that the reader 'may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God', and believing this 'have life through him'. In this 'first' sign, it is solemnly announced, Jesus 'revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him'. We are given notice that we should find here far more than the moving story of a wedding celebration that was saved from disaster by a miracle worked by Jesus.
