The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers, because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

I give you a new commandment', Jesus continues, 'Love one another, just as I have loved you'. In the love that led him to lay down his life for us, Jesus gives expression to the 'glory', the incomparable mystery of all that he shares with the Father. God's 'glory' is shown to the world - not in power and display - but in an act of selfless love that is the expression in our midst of a decision made from all eternity in the depths of the divine freedom. Making our own the ways of God, and making this 'new commandment' our rule of life, we must lead the world to a meeting with the mystery of God and all the blessings this meeting can bring. The vision of the second reading from the Apocalypse tells of what may be hoped for, when the whole of creation is caught up in the 'glory' the Saviour has brought into the world. Meanwhile, the reading from Acts reminds us, the cross is the way to a sharing in God's 'glory': the 'hardships' of life should not surprise us, as we make our way towards 'the kingdom of God.
