*The name of Jesus is the glory of preachers,
because the shining splendour of that name causes God's word to be proclaimed and heard.*

GOSPEL REFLECTION

The gospel is the story of the Saviour. Luke's second volume, Acts of the Apostles is the story of the Church's beginnings. So Luke tells this second story in a way that emphasises the sure foundations of the Church's faith – what the disciples learned from the Risen Lord, who 'for forty days, continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God'. As we have seen in the past weeks, all the gospels imply this learning process, making reference to the initial doubts and hesitations of the disciples in their encounters with Christ after his resurrection. Of course, Luke may have his own factual basis for his account – there was certainly a large influx of pilgrims to Jerusalem on the feast of Pentecost, 50 days after the Passover; on the other hand, as we know, 40 is used by biblical writers, as a round number. Through the gift of the Christ's own Spirit at Pentecost this foundation laid by the Saviour will shape the Church's mission: 'not many days from now you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit'. Luke, in Acts, tells the story of the early Church as the work of the Holy Spirit.

Luke's presentation of the Ascension brings out something else of great moment in the life of the pilgrim Church. 'I am going away', Jesus had said to the disciples more than once. Gone to the right hand of the Father he will be present in a new and more intimate way: 'I am with you always; yes, to the end of time' (Matthew 28). In one of his homilies Pope Leo the Great wrote: 'The visible presence of our Redeemer passed over into the sacraments. For, in a mysterious way, once he had returned to the glory of his Father's majesty, the Son of Man began to be more present'.

STEWARDSHIP INSERTS

May 8, 2016

7th Sunday of Easter

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

REVELATIONS 22:13

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is a lifestyle, it's how I make all my decisions.

Hospitality Ministry – seeking VOLUNTEERS.

Are you interested in assisting with welcoming new people to our parish, serving and/or catering for parish functions? This may involve

- *Monthly morning tea after Mass
- *Meet and greet families bringing their child for Baptism
- *Sacramental program events (specific time periods during the year)
- *Other parish activity as the need arises.

Rosters can be put in place so your time commitment can be minimal.

If this ministry is for you or if you have any questions please contact Jean Altar Servers: We thank all parents and guardians for supporting your child in this ministry. Not only do altar servers provide an important service to the parish, they also learn more about the Mass and the meaning and importance of the various parts of the celebration.

Fr John will run a training session for all altar servers on Saturday 21st May at 2pm – 3pm. It is important for all current altar servers to attend this session.

Anyone who has completed their First Eucharist is eligible to become an altar server.

Servers are rostered to serve at their preferred family Mass. Anyone interested in becoming an altar server is most welcome to attend this training session.

If you have any questions please contact the Parish Office.

A BIG THANK YOU to the Arts & Crafts group for your wonderful efforts in making the Mothers' Day stall last weekend such a great success! .

And Thank you to all those who helped with the donation of items, baked goods ,sausage sizzle and set up.

The total monies raised for the "Share Dignity Cause" (For homeless women) was $972.60 such an impressive amount. The Mother's Day raffle which is still running will be drawn on Saturday 28th May, so get in quick to win.

All monies raised from the Mother's Day raffle will also go towards "Share Dignity".

Thank you to all Parishioners once again for all items donated and your efforts in helping to raise funds for such a worthy cause.
