Happy Easter To all

Since my COVID experience over this past week or so, I am hoping that I am recovered enough to carry out the significant Triduum Liturgies from Holy Thursday to Easter Sunday. The COVID bug this time knocked me about somewhat worse than I had experienced the first time, and I spent much of those seven days simply sleeping. Perhaps also due in part to the terrible head cold with which I had also been afflicted, I really was down for the count. But I am hoping that I can now continue to be active and effective in all that will no doubt come my way in the days that are ahead.

A FEW DAYS OFF

Due to the busy-ness of the Easter Ceremonies and following on from my illness, I have decided to disappear for a few days after Easter to regroup and recover. So, there will be no Masses in the Parish from Monday to Friday of that week. Those who wish to gather for prayer, as St Catherine's so often does, is fine. Otherwise, I am sure there are plenty of Masses available in neighbouring parishes.

Communion under both kinds at Masses

Following Bishop Ken's e-mail regarding Communion under both kinds at Masses, I am considering doing so from the Second Week of Easter when the crowds may not be as significant. Starting next Saturday 15th April at all of the Weekend Masses we will endeavour to re-introduce Communion under both kinds. Please keep in mind, that if you are hesitant about receiving from the Chalice at Mass, you are free to choose not to do so. But, I will leave it up to each person to decide. God bless, Fr John
