Ministry Matters

Trinity Sunday.

So we gather on this Sunday where we encounter God, who is for us, Father and Son and Holy Spirit.

God the Father is creator, who spoke and it would be. From the very dawn of our creation, God has spoken his Word into our lives and into our world, and it is in that moment of speaking that it is created, whatever the IT may be for our world.

Then the Word spoken would become Jesus Christ, Son of God and saviour, who was with God and who was God, from the very beginning. Sent by the Father to bring salvation to our world.

Finally the Spirit, that Holy Spirit of God, the great Advocate, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. It was this Holy Spirit of God emanating from the Father who empowered Jesus to enter into the human ministry as Saviour and it was that same Holy spirit who would then be sent to the Disciples to continue the mission that Jesus, the Son had begun. So this is Trinity, God who is Father and Son and Holy spirit. Each with their own part to play in the unfolding drama that is human history.

This weekend then, we enter into the celebration of the Eucharist which is offered for the first time to the young men and women of our community who have been preparing for these events through the past few weeks. They and their family members now step up to receive the Eucharist with us the local community. Through this Body and Blood of Christ our young ones and their families, now enter into this time of Trinity as this presence of God, Father and Son and Holy Spirit, draw them into their own personal encounter with God. This weekend, we celebrate with them, and we welcome them into full communion as members of our Community. But this is just the beginning of their journey of faith. I wonder who they will become as they grow in faith, I wonder what they will do as the disciples of Jesus Christ tomorrow.

Let's wait and see. God bless, Fr John

Trinity Sunday

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son"
JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional?
Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness?
Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions?
If you give someone something, do you expect something in return?
Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you?
God desires a personal relationship with us so much that
He gave us His Son, unconditionally!
Pray for a grateful and generous heart.
Now's the time to get involved in one of our ministries!

(Accessed on May 26, 2023 from www.archstl.org/about-stewardship/bulletin-inserts/weekly-biblereflections)

I have stepped outside my comfort zone and registered to take part in the SVDP sleep out on the 16th of June. My husband has offered to come with me, to keep me company and to possibly keep me a little warmer. Apparently, we are given 3 pieces of cardboard and will get soup and a roll for dinner!

While the aim of the sleep out is to raise money, the driving reason I signed up is because how this money is being utilised. Each $500 will be used to help a family that is homeless. This could be families that can no longer afford rent, mothers and their children escaping domestic violence or older people who have lost their partner and have no financial support. These people will be surrounded by a support network who will work with them to find short- and medium-term housing, employment and other necessities to empower them to escape from this poverty cycle. This is not a band aid fix but a hand up to support them through this difficult patch.

My aim is to raise $1000 - to support 2 families to achieve a better life. I would appreciate any donations towards this goal.

I have set up a SVDP donation page and would appreciate any support you are able to give.
